HoganTaylor

Clay Glasgow, CPA, ABV, CFF, CFE

Partner

Little Rock

11300 Cantrell Road, Ste. 301,
Little Rock, AR 72212
cglasgow@hogantaylor.com
501.227.5800

Clay has more than 20 years of experience in public accounting and has served in a variety of capacities during his career, including roles in advisory, assurance, and tax. Clay has significant experience serving clients in the banking, nonprofit, healthcare, and manufacturing sectors.

In his role as the leader of HoganTaylor's Forensic, Valuation, and Litigation Services practice, Clay regularly advises clients and attorneys in forensic accounting, business valuation, and litigation matters. He has testified as an expert in court on issues such as economic damages, embezzlement, business valuation, and marital property divisions.

Representative Experience

- Litigation support services, including economic damages analysis and expert witness testimony.
- Business valuations in connection with litigation, mergers and acqusitions, corporate planning, financial reporting, stockholder compensation, and estate and gift taxes.
- Financial investigations related to employee embezzlement, fiduciary fraud, shareholder disputes, and divorces.
- Merger and acquisition consulting, including financial due diligence, financial modeling, and quality of earnings analysis.

Certifications & Honors

- Certified Public Accountant (CPA)
- Accredited in Business Valuation (ABV)
- Certified in Financial Forensics (CFF)
- Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE)

Professional & Civic Affiliations

- Member, American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA)
- Member, Arkansas Society of Certified Public Accountants (ASCPA)
- Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE)
- Treasurer and Board of Directors, Arkansas Better Business Bureau
- Parish Council, Holy Trinity Orthodox Church
- Advisory Council and Past Board President, Our House, Inc.

Education

- Bachelor of Accounting, Professional Accountancy, Ouachita Baptist University