Hayden serves as a Senior Manager with HoganTaylor's Forensic, Valuation, and Litigation Support (FVLS) team and leads the FVLS practice in the Oklahoma City market. He has experience providing rigorous analysis, applying best-practice valuation methodologies, and delivering empirical insights that bring clarity to complex situations and help clients move forward with confidence. Whether navigating the complexities of litigation or high-stakes business transactions, supporting family law matters, or conducting fraud investigations, Hayden delivers solutions that withstand scrutiny.

Hayden's areas of practice include financial forensics, business valuations, and economic damage analysis. He works closely with attorneys, business leaders, and executives to address a wide range of legal and business challenges.

Hayden earned a Master of Business Administration from Louisiana State University Shreveport and a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from Arkansas Tech University.
